

Monday, November 25, 2013

Kirsten Johnson

[REDACTED]
San Francisco, CA 94123

Congratulations! You have passed both the oral and written portions of your certification exam and you are now a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach! You will receive a certificate by mail in approximately 3 weeks.

This letter serves as documentation for having completed all course work required for The Coaches Training Institute's Certification Program. You have completed a total of 200 training hours which includes the hours from your core curriculum. Your certification date is Monday, November 25, 2013.

If you would like to be part of Find-A-Coach on the Co-Active Network www.coactivenetwork.com, complete your profile and check the "CPCC" box under the Coaching Credentials section.

We are excited to share the Certified Professional Co-active Coach logo. This logo is intended to illustrate your distinguishable skills as a graduate of CTI's world-renowned coaching curriculum. To access the logo please visit <http://www.thecoaches.com/resources/partners/cpcc-logo.html>

The CTI Certification Program meets the ICF Associate Coaching Credential (ACC) requirements. If you have had at least 8 clients you can immediately apply for your ACC. Your Certification Program Client Tracking Sheets can be used with your ICF application. Please refer to the ICF website at www.coachfederation.org for forms and requirements.

Again, congratulations on your success!

Best regards,

Sabrina M. Roblin, CPCC
Vice President, School Director